

Proceedings of the Centennial Anniversary of the Presbyterian Church at Sparta, N.J., November 23, 1886 Together with a History of the Village

By Theodore Frelinghuysen Chambers

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 38 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1887 Excerpt: . . . I could not see over them, and get my ears snapped for it, too; and the high, winding stairs to the old box-pulpit with a sounding-board overhead, very much like a big umbrella to an express wagon nowadays! And how it would shake when the Bible was pounded in the days of the Rev. Noah Crane! I always had him associated with Noahs Ark, because of his age and venerable appearance and name. He had his hearers all under conviction, he used to say, when he lived in Newark and preached to the spirits in prison (the penitentiary). After Mr. Crane came Mr. Wyckoff. He used to have the children come to his house Saturday afternoon, and to hold a meeting with them. The iirst time I went, he read about Josiah and talked about him. He began to serve the Lord when he was eight...

READ ONLINE
[5.87 MB]

Reviews

A top quality publication along with the font used was intriguing to read. I really could comprehend everything using this written e ebook. Its been designed in an remarkably straightforward way and it is only after i finished reading through this publication by which basically altered me, modify the way i believe.

-- Cathrine Larkin Sr.

Very useful to all of group of people. I actually have read through and so i am certain that i will planning to study yet again once again down the road. I am just very easily can get a satisfaction of looking at a created book.

-- Mark Bernier