The North Carolina School for the Deaf and Dumb, and respectfully ask your careful examination of the condition, progress, and needs of the Institution of which they are the States custodians. The North Carolina School for the Deaf and Dumb was established by act of the Legislature of 1891. Previous to this year, the Blind and the Deaf had been in the same school, the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, and the Blind at Raleigh. This legislature realized the difficulty of educating the two classes of unfortunates, between which there was nothing in common, in the same school. As the years ago by the wisdom of this location becomes more and more apparent, for nowhere in the state is there a situation having superior advantages. The elevation above the malarial line, the excellent natural drainsge, the pure water, the panorama of lofty mountains which wall the horizon, together with the salubrious climate there found, make the situation ideal. The history of the early struggles, of the gradual and yet successful progress of the North Carolina School for the Deaf and Dumb, during the twenty years of its life, is an open book in this State, and one to which the Board...
