Relations of Nda And Upa With Neighbour

By Raj Kumar

2011. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 424 The book 'Relations of NDA and UPA with Neighbours' is an attempt to establish a systematic analysis of India's foreign policy in terms of its relations with Pakistan, Nepal, Bangladesh and Sri Lanka. The first non-Congress government formed in 1977, although gave the concept of genuine non-alignment, did not witness any basic policy change. In line till date the political parties of different shades, while in power, followed the foreign policy of their predecessors. Even in this age of Globalisation the changing national and international milieu emphasised that regional cooperation should be strengthened and enhanced further.
