Brand New Book  Print on Demand .John Mack McElroy is summoned home by Uncle Walter, owner of The Point-fifty acres of real estate at the southernmost tip of Naples, Florida, housing a mansion, horse stables, a boat house, and an airstrip. Mack returns to the mansion to witness his uncle shot dead by a sniper s bullet. Mack struggles with reoccurring nightmares while sleeping in the mansion, froth with childhood memories of his insane father s antics and his reclusive uncle s mysterious behavior. He discovers that Howard Randall s law firm has a class action lawsuit that threatens his ownership of The Point, and the Seminole Indians are contesting the legality of his grandfather s deed. The Naples City Council is using the right of eminent domain to acquire The Point. Mack knows it s all due to the property being worth $50 million, and he s determined to keep it. As Seminoles are being murdered around him, Mack and Detective Carmen Sanchez attempt to find the truth behind his uncle s murder. He learns of his father s land scams involving The Point and his uncle s decadent sexual proclivities. While Mack finds himself falling for the detective, his friend is murdered by Randall s henchman, and Mack sets out on a non-stop course to kill Howard Randall. Randall proves to be an extremely difficult man to kill, and Mack s own death appears inevitable. This story doesn t end before a flurry of gunfire and a series of plot twists. Carmen s responsibilities prohibit any chance of a future with Mack. Or do they?.
