

Roads to Berlin: Detours and Riddles in the Lands and History of Germany

By Nootboom, Cees.

Maclehose Press. 1 Paperback(s), 2012. soft. Book Condition: New. (Winner of the German Order of Merit) In 1989, the Dutch-born author of Nomad Hotel and The Foxes Come at Night was living in Berlin, giving him a front row seat for the climax of the Cold War. These essays reflect Cees Nootboom's lifelong fascination with Germany and Berlin in particular, touching upon such topics as Goethe, Romanticism, baroque cities, border crossings, and the trauma of reunification. Written over the course of many years, this book reflects the changing hopes and perceptions of both the author and the German people." [A] deeply philosophical blend of reportage, history, and memoir, capturing the psyche of a people living in the shadow of a wall and of their own past." The New Yorker 434.
