Excerpt: . humbled for sin; or of being deeply awakened in conscience, that sinners must first believe in Jesus. * No: but as transgressors: as in a perishing state; and as having nothing to preserve them from despair, except what the Scripture says concerning Christ, his offices, and his grace. It is, at least, in this view of the gospel, and of Jesus as revealed by it, that the writer of these pages either enjoys peace, or expects felicity. CHAPTER III. OBJECTIONS ANSWERED. Against the sentiment for which I plead, and in opposition to the course of my reasoning, it has been strenuously urged, Repentance includes a holy disposition, and must precede faith in Christ. But, supposing the priority of repentance to faith were granted, it would infer no valid objection to the principle here defended: except it were proved, that repentance must precede, as...
