The investigators of the Research Department of the Women s Educational and Industrial Union have been in close touch with the work of the pioneer school for the training of store employees which was founded in 1905 and maintained as a part of the activities of the Union until September, 1918. We are indebted to Mrs. Lucinda W. Prince, the Director, and Miss Helen Rich Norton, formerly Associate Director, for opportunities to observe the activities of the school. We have profited, also, by the assistance of experienced and gifted directors of the education departments of Boston stores; special mention should be made of our obligations to Miss Bernice M. Cannon, of William Filene s Sons Company, Miss Mary Hopkins of the Jordan Marsh Company and Miss...
