This course has as its object the rapid adaptation of the civilian practitioner to the life, work and customs of the Army. The instruction is progressive and extends from the school of the recruit to the organization, functions, and administration of all Medical Department units attached to the field forces or in home territory, in peace or war, such as regimental detachments, medical regiments, evacuation hospitals, surgical hospitals, hospital trains, general hospitals, and station hospitals. The course is also designed to prepare him for the discharge of his military duties upon entry into the service, irrespective of whether his assignment be with mobile or fixed formations. (2) An advanced course, to be conducted from May 1st to July 15th, for officers whose war or field experience indicates their fitness for field instruction. This course will deal mainly with the organization, function,...

Reviews

An incredibly amazing ebook with perfect and lucid answers. It is written in basic terms and never difficult to understand. It has been written in an exceptionally basic way and it is only right after I finished reading this ebook in which it in fact modified me, affected the way I really believe.

-- Beverly Hoppe

Extremely helpful for all classes of individuals. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. I realized this publication from my father and dad suggested this ebook to discover.

-- Adela Schroeder II
