

Geocaching with a Garmin GPS a Treasure Hunting Adventure

By Paul Scime

Prime Technology Corporation. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 138 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.4in. Everything you need to start the high tech treasure hunt called Geocaching. By logging into a geocaching website anyone can locate the coordinates to find a geocache. A geocache is a container containing a logbook, and trade items. Geocaches are hidden in city and state parks, along hiking trails, near convention centers, parking lots and in local neighborhoods. Geocaches are hidden in over 200 countries worldwide. Odds are you probably pass several everyday. Some caches are easier to find than others. There are caches hidden around the world for all ability levels. Geocaching is an excellent family friendly activity, or an interesting diversion when away on business trips. This book includes everything to get you Geocaching today. Don't have a GPS yet This book will show you how to start your geocaching adventure with or without the use of a GPS. It also includes special tips on setting up a Garmin GPS for Geocaching. This book includes: A full introduction to Geocaching Tips for using your GPS How to view Caches in Google Earth Learn how to hide your own cache Selecting a location to hide...

READ ONLINE
[8.79 MB]

Reviews

Certainly, this is actually the very best job by any author. It really is rally exciting throug studying time. You may like how the blogger write this pdf.

-- Rudolph Jones MD

Completely essential go through ebook. I was able to comprehended almost everything using this created e pdf. You will not sense monotony at anytime of your time (that's what catalogs are for relating to if you request me).

-- Timmothy Schulist