

Here On Moon

By Edward Krauss

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 305 pages. HERE ON MOON is about a woman in her mid-30s, with a successful career in a Boston investment firm, a husband, and a bright and witty 14-year-old daughter. Suddenly, unexpectedly, she discovers her husband's infidelity, and is devastated and humiliated by his refusal to be forgiven. In spite of a visit to a marriage counselor he remains adamant, saying that he simply no longer loves his wife, and divorce is the only option. We follow her as she travels through trauma, anger, and grudging acceptance of her new status as a divorcee. Support comes to her from a neighbor, a woman who has been divorced for several years, and from a women's support group that invites her into their circle. There are difficult, emotionally tricky moments: How to deal with the presence of the divorcing husband at her mother's hospital bed . . . how to support her daughter's role as a shared child . . . how to endure a book club meeting in which the ex-husband's lover unexpectedly shows up. Learning how to deal with being a single mother, how to get over being diminished by her divorce, she gains strength to...
