Luther Willson, the junior pastor of the church in Brooklyn, who had altered his views upon the subject of the Trinity, and was accused of heresy before the Consociation of Windham County, was ever solicitous, from the commencement of the difficulty occasioned by his change of sentiments until the time of his dismissal, to continue with the church and society in Brooklyn in peace, or to leave them peaceable and united among themselves, and in a manner consistent with the principles and character of a Christian minister.] Record of the Church. In consequence of uneasiness and disaffection in the church and among the people on account of erroneous opinions supposed to be entertained by
