Coleworts. 1 Horticulture began to become fashionable in the sixteenth century, as appears from several publications on the subject, still extant; and in this list of herbs and seeds for the kitchen, we find some vegetables which are rejected by the moderns, and others whose very names it is difficult to refer to their present synonyms. In the glossary will be found such explanations, as may reasonably be required. It is evident that many plants were cultivated for their fancied medical virtues. Betony, avens, bloodwort, burnet, bugloss, ox tongue, or lang de beef, a corruption of langue du bcrnf. and some others, are of this kind. Every age has its absurdities: we now depend too much on chemicals. x 1 In...
