

Voyage to Midnight Island

By Senior Lecturer in Law James Chalmers

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Fourteen year old Frank Nightingale and his fifteen year old sister Lucy are heading for Midnight Island as passengers on a cargo boat, when they should have been spending the summer holidays at their boarding school. According to a plan found in the school library, there s a book of magic spells hidden in a castle on the island. The voyage is far from being a luxury cruise and when they get to Midnight Island things get a lot worse. In charge of the island is the evil, self-styled Count Drago who has been searching for the book of magic spells but can t find it. Frank and Lucy aren t superheroes with special powers - just ordinary teenagers who come up against the chaos and danger on Midnight Island. This is an action and adventure story with contemporary themes - written with young teenagers in mind. It also makes a great bedtime story for mums or dads to read to younger children. Will Frank and Lucy be forced into finding the book for the Count? Does it..
