Excerpt: . . . distributes justice (meaning either that the balance is lifted up by the hand, or raised on a stand). Common stone and gold are the same to him, and if thou look at him with the eye of the sagacious, thou wilt wonder to find that people are satisfied with his decision, although he is by nature partial to one of the litigants, showing a bias towards him. And reckon this to be our dowry of divorce. --The dowry or provision of divorce (mutatu t-tildqi) is a gift made by the husband to a wife, divorced before consummation has taken place, in obedience to Koran, ii. 237: It shall be no crime in you, if ye divorce your wives, so long as ye have not consummated the marriage nor settled any dowry on them. And provide for them-- he who is in easy circumstances according to...
