When a man is brutally murdered in an exclusive penthouse apartment in Singapore, the trail leads back to a Hindu ashram in a remote Indian village. With the police powerless to prevent the chief suspects from absconding back to the ashram, they call upon Mr Christopher Lim, a man already en route from Singapore to look into the strange goings-on at the shady religious retreat, and S. I. Selvi, a local Tamil police officer, to continue the murder investigation in India on their behalf. As their investigation unfolds, the twisted, shocking state of affairs at the ashram begins to come to light, the bizarre, sordid series of events which led to the final act are methodically exposed, and the mind of a deranged fanatic slowly emerges from the darkness of the void, voicing its views from the shadows. . . Chitra Sankarans Void Of Reason is a skilfully interwoven tapestry of narratives, leads and possibilities that will have you on tenterhooks to the very end. This item ships from multiple locations.
