Excerpt: . industry, and are in a worse state than the for roer. For extravagant young fellows, that have liveliness and spirit, come sometimes to be set right, and so make able and great men; but dejected minds timorous and tame, and low spirits, are hardly ever to be raised, and very seldom attain to any thing. To a void the danger that is on either hand, is the great art: and he that has found a way how to keep up a child s spirits easy, active, and free, and yet at the same time to restrain him from many things he has a mind to, and to draw him to things that are uneasy to him; he, I say, that knows how to reconcile these seeming contradictions, has, in my opinion, got the true secret of education, 47. The usual, lazy, and short..
