But do not continue the recital if you feel in the least fatigued. Fatigued! she repeated; just as though a woman could tire of talking. If you will listen I will relate one moie series of incidents which shortly after befel me, for you must know the nature of my mission necessarily led me into many awkward and perplexing situations, and sometimes most dangerous ones. For the two following days after my recent narrow escape, I kept myself closely confined to my quarters, employing my time chiefly in writing and drawing. Besides, I had other reasons for keeping close, not the least of which was to be prepared for an uadertaking that I felt necessary for the grand accomplishment of my mission within the enemy s stronghold. On the third morning Mrs. Ramsey, who, in fact, was my only attendant, and I might say my...
